New Zealand IRF Representatives

New Zealand is entitled to two representatives on the IRF. Alan Holdaway has been a member for some time. The New Zealand Rogaining Association has notified the IRF that their second delegate is Nick Collins. Nick is an active rogainer from Taranaki in the Central North Island and is taking a leading interest in rogaining both in his home region and nationally. This includes an interest in entry criteria for WRC. Welcome, Nick Nick replaces Michael Wood who has been an observer on the IRF for many years. Michael has been a great supporter of rogaining and his contributions have been greatly appreciated.

2010 Australian Championships

Sat-Sun, 27-28 March

The 2010 Australian Rogaining Championships will be held in the magnificent Snowy Mountains and hosted by the ACT Rogaining Association. The course will be set by national rogaining champions, David Baldwin and Julie Quinn, and will provide excellent navigational challenges in a beautiful environment.

The terrain will vary from alpine ash forests, through snow gum woodlands and granite boulder fields, to open plains. Autumn near Kosciuszko typically provides superb clear days with cool evenings. The Hash House will offer ideal camping and there is a caravan park and lodge accommodation within 5 minutes drive.
